DAILY NEWS-LEADER PASSES TO NEW OWNER

Announcement was made last night that John D. Bromfield, the enterprising newspaper man of San Mateo, has sold the News-Leader to Ed. S. Riggins, formerly of the business department of the San Francisco Chronicle and recently of the Call staff. Mr. Bromfield's associate Al. C. Sweetser, also has disposed of his interest in the News-Leader Publishing Company to Mr. Riggins, who will take over the business and newspaper next Tuesday, June 1st. Bromfield and Sweetser, who have built up a very flourishing business, will remain with the new management for one month, until the new owner familiarizes himself with the work.

SHERIFF M. SHEEHAN LEFT FOR KANSAS CITY

Sheriff M. Sheehan departed yesterday for Kansas City to bring back Jesse Medrias wanted for non-support of wife who lives at Daly City. Medaris fled to Sacramento where it is alleged he married an Italian girl of 18. From there he went to Kansas City. Medaris will no doubt be charged with the crime of bigamy on his return. Medaris is 30 years of age and is well-known in Daly City.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF COAST SIDE PASSES AWAY

J. F. Wienke, a pioneer resident of the coastside, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Nash, early Thursday morning after a brief illness. At the home at Moss Beach three weeks ago Mr. Wienke suffered an attack of neuritis and on Saturday last he was removed to Redwood City.

Mr. Wienke was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He came to San Mateo County 39 years ago. He was in his 76th year when the summons came.

He was born in Germany, July 15, 1844, and came to California in 1863, first engaging in mining in Northern California. In 1881 he settled on the coastside at what is now Moss Beach and became the founder of that little town, living there continuously ever since. During his early residence on the coastside he engaged in farming and the hotel business, Wienke's hotel being one of the famous old hostleries in that section for many years. About twelve years ago he retired from active business, but continued to live at Moss Beach, except for an absence of a few months when he and his wife, their daughter and son-in-law, the late County Clerk Joseph H. Nash, took a trip to Europe.

Mr. Wienke devoted many years of his life to the upbuilding of San Mateo county and performed much public service. He served on several grand juries and was an exemplary citizens in all respects.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Meta Wienke, and his daughter, Mrs. Nash, both of whom have the heartfelt sympathy of the people of the county. It was only a little more than a year ago that Mrs. Nash's husband passed away, and the death of her mother-in-law, Mrs. J. C. Nash, occurred recently.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Nash, and the Rev. C. H. Stevens of the Congregational church of Redwood City will officiate. Interment will be in St. John's cemetery, San Mateo.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Jake Weinberg of Burlingame has leased the quarters formerly conducted as amerchandise store on Broadway for a second hand furniture concern. He will also keep a full line of high class furniture. Mr. Weinberg has resided in Burlingame where he had been engaged in business. He comes to Redwood City well recommended.

E. R. Whitehead, assistant cashier of the First National Bank, wife and W. H. Coffinberry and wife of South San Francisco left on a motor trip to Yosemite Valley during the week and will enjoy the beauties of that wonderland for ten days. Mr. Whitehead is taking his annual vacation. Mr. Coffinberry is the president of the bank of South San Francisco.

The management of the Pratt-Lowe Canning and Preserving Company announces that the plant here will open about the 10th of July for operation and will begin canning apricots and continue as the various crops mature. Attention is called to the advertisement appearing in thees columns asking for help. Those seeking work may register at the office at once. The factory is one of the finest in the country.

During the week Charles Jossely, owner of the Alhambra building, sent the local fire department a check for $50 for its efficient work in putting out the fire on the building last week. The department appreciates the money coming as it does from a public-spirited property owner who knows and appreciates the services of the fire boys.

Following a custom of many years Redwood Parlor, N. S. G. W., will decorate the graves of the departed members with a Bear flag and the Stars and Stripes on Memorial Day. The various cemeteries of the county will be visited by the following committee for that purpose: A. S. Ligouri, C. Curran and Sylvester Douglass.

CITY BOARD OF TRUSTEES HELD SPECIAL MEETING

At a special meeting of the city council Monday night, plans and specifications prepared by City Engineer C. L. Dimmitt were adopted for the construction of a fifteen-inch sewer along Heller and Chestnut streets to take care of the needs of the Pratt-Lowe Preserving Company, whose big cannery in the south end of town is rapidly nearing completion. The proposed sewer will start at Willow and Heller, extend up Heller to Chestnut and out the latter street to the plant of the Anglo-California Dye Works to connect with the twelve-inch sewer already laid from that plant to Steinberger creek. The number of feet of pipe to be laid will be 4550 and the estimated cost is in the neighborhood of $10,000.

Two alternate forms of bids will be called for in awarding the contract for the work. One bid will call for the contractor furnishing the necessary pipe and constructing the sewer complete; the other bid will be for the construction of the sewer with the city supplying the pipe.

City Clerk Price was instructed, on motion of Trustee Tuchsen and McNulty, to advertise for bids, which are to be opened on Monday evening, June 7th. The time for completing the work will be one of the essentials considered by the board in the award of the contract, it being necessary to have the sewer installed as quickly as possible in order to meet the requirements of the connery concern, who expect to be in operation the latter part of July.

The money required for the construction of the sewer will be taken from the water fund, which now has a healthy surplus of over $15,000. In laying a fifteen-inch pipe, the trustees have taken into consideration the future needs of the Pratt-Lowe Company, which, when the plant is in full operation, will be between 300,000 and 40,000 gallons daily. The board is also figuring in the event of the annexation of the Boyd and Kent tract, that the sewage from this district will be taken care of through the new sewer on Heller street.

A. E. Montieth, the supervising director of the Redwood City schools, appeared before the board Monday evening in behalf of the school trustees and asked the city to donate the old kindergarten to the school district. Mr. Montieth explained the crowded condition at the Central school and the needs of additional room to care for the rapidly increasing attendance. The building asked for, he stated, would be used in taking care of the receiving class with the beginning of the fall term.

The board, on motion of Trustee McNulty and Mabie, voted to donate the building to the school district, with the understanding that as soon as convenient the structure would be removed from its present location.

Frank Bryant of the Redwood Aviation school, was granted permission by the board to use a portion of the Municipal warehouse at the foot of Main street for temporary storing some of his machinery at a rental of $1.00 a month.

On the recommendation of City Engineer C. L. Dimmitt, who reported that the work was practically completed, the board, on motion of Trustees Mabie and McNulty, accepted the contract of Dreyfus Bros., for the construction of the outfall sewer on Steinberger street and the pumping plant in connection therewith.

On motion of Trustees McNulty and Mabie, City Clerk Price was directed to write the contractor on the new fire house on Bebster street informing him that the building must be completed and ready for occupancy when the time limit expires.

NEW DEPUTY IN OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK

Miss Azelia Thompson of this city has been appointed by County Clerk Elizabeth M. Nash as a deputy in her office to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. W. W. Hilton, who left with her husband this week for a motor trip to Canada. Miss Thompson is a daughter of the late M. H. Thompson, at one time county clerk in this county, and is a graduate of Sequoia Union high school. She has had experience in office work and will no doubt make a very efficient deputy clerk. Miss Thompson is a stenographer of ability and for some time has been in the employ of a large hardware store in San Francisco. She will assume the duties of the position on June first. Although the news of Mrs. Hilton's resignation had been published in almost every paper in the county, Mrs. Nash had but few applications for the contemplated vacancy.

Times have certainly changed. Some years ago if a change in any of the departments of the court house was announced the appointing power would be besieged with applications and every influence would be brought to bear upon the party having the appointment.

Better salaries are now being paid by private concerns and this is the reason there is not such a desire for political appointments.

FORMER RESIDENT OF COUNTY APPOINTED ON COMMISSION

Ex-Mayor C. P. Cooley of Palo Alto and formerly a resident of San Mateo county has received notification that he has been appointed a member of the Federal Highway Commission. This commission includes in its membership prominent men throughout the country and has the important function of investigating and making recommendations in connection with the good roads movement throughout the United States.

The appointment came as a surprise to Mr. Cooley, as he had no knowledge that his name was being considered, the selection having been made on the recommendation of a prominent officer in the War Department. Mr. Cooley is a son of Mrs. Geraldine E. Frisbie of San Mateo.

JURY DISAGREES

The suit of Mrs. M. C. Follmer against the United Railroads for $16,000 damages for injuries received April 19, 1919, was tried before a jury in the superior court on Monday and Tuesday. The jury disagreed. Mrs. Follmer was a passenger in an automobile driven by her daughter, Mrs. F. A. Lucy of Palo Alto, when it was struck by a San Mateo car near Cypress Lawn cemetery. Mrs. J. B. McCracken, aged 70, of Michigan, an aunt of Mrs. Lucy, was killed in the crash and Mrs. Follmer was badly injured. Both plaintiff and defendant claim the other was negligent.

Eight of the jurors were willing to give plaintiff damages in the sum of $7500 while the other four held out for the defendant. Hall C. Ross and Cannon appeared for the railroad while W. A. Kelly represented the plaintiff.

C. M. MORSE PASSES AWAY WAS PROMINENT IN COUNTY

Charles M. Morse, a pioneer of San Mateo, passed away at his home on Tuesday morning last. An heart affection from which he had suffered for several years was the cause of death. He was prominent in the political circles of the county for a number of years. In the early days of San Mateo he conducted a drug store and later was editor of the San Mateo Leader. Recently he sold his chicken ranch at Runnymede to become secretary of the Bulding and Loan Society of San Mateo.

Charles Morgan Morse was born in South Amboy, N. J., August 24, 1853, and at the time of his death was in his 67th year. His parents moved to Missouri when he was quite young, and he was reared in the town of Kirkwood in that State. He received his education in the schools of St. Louis and was graduated from the mining engineering department of Washington university in 1875.

He moved to San Mateo in 1877.

The funeral was held on Thursday morning from the church of St. Matthews. Interment was in St. John's cemetery.

COBURN ESTATE SETTLED

By orders made yesterday afternoon in the superior court by Judge Buck the estates of Loren Coburn and Sarah S. Coburn were settled and practically closed. The two will contests and the suit to nullify the Widemann agreement were dismissed. Widemann satisfied his option and became the owner of the Pescadero property for $375,000. The attorney and executor's fees in both estates were allowed in the sum of $20,000 for the Loren Coburn estate and $10,000 for his wife's estate. The accounts of the executor were allowed and a partial distribution ordered. The only claim against the estate of L. Coburn is that of C. Littlefield for $92,000 which will be litigated.

HOW TO READ YOUR GAS METER

If you will look at your gas meter, you will notice three dials. That on the left hand, marked 100 thousand, registers 10,000 cubic feet of gas from one figure to the next. The middle dial, marked 10 thousand. registers 1,000 cubic feet from one figure to the next. The dial on the right, marked 1 thousand, registers 100 cubic feet from one figure to the next.

In reading, note the direction in which the pointers move, as indicated by the arrows, and set down the reading from LEFT to RIGHT, using the figure that the hand has last passed, unless the hand just covers the figure.

Suppose, for instance, that the pointer on the left hand dial rests nearest the figure , that on the middle dial nearest 3, and that on the right hand dial nearest 2: the whole reading, then, is 53,200 cubic feet. And that represents the total consumption of gas registered by that meter. Now, subtract from that the toal amount registered at last month's reading and you have your consumption of gas for the month. Apply the rate per 1000 cubic feet and you know the amount of your gas bill.

TRY READING YOUR OWN METER. You will find it is very easy to take periodic readings and keep a check on your gas consumption.

Should the Company's meter-reader make an error and over-read or under-read your meter, the misreading will automatically correct itself the following month and your next bill will be correspondingly less, or more, and no real injustice done to either the consumer or the Company.

DENOUNCING THRIFT

The Republican Publicity Asosciation, through its President, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr., has given out the following statement from its Washington headquarters:

"In a recent bulletin relative to the manner in which the meat packing establishments of the country were built up, the Federal Trade Commission says, in an apparent tone of criticism, that the several companies 'have grown to these proportions principally from profits retained in the business after deducting dividends paid to stockholders.' If this is intended as a criticism of the re-investment of profits in an extension of the business of meat packing, it is also inferentially a criticism of the practice of re-investment of profits in any business. If such is to be the policy of the Federal Trade Commission, it is difficult to imagine how lrage enterprises can be built up in this country without the builders coming under the condemnation of the Government.

Every business, large or small, that has been established in America has been established out of the profits of business. The present owner of the Woolworth 5 and 10 Cent Stores began with no capital except his own energy, but by the severest economy he saved from his earnings, invested those earnings in business, saved the profits of the business, and reinvested them time after time until the Woolworth concern now owns the highest building in the United States and controls a chain of retail stores which are recognized as a great boon to the consuming public of the Uinted States. Other concerns have adopted a similar policy in mercantile enterprise.

The only alternative open to the meat packers or to other men of enterprise, is to waste their savings or cut their profit so that there shall be nothing to save. Imagine what the United States would be today if in all the history of American industry the policy had been pursued of cutting profits until there were no profits to save. Our railroads would not have been built, our mines would not have been developed, our oil wells would not have been drilled, immense factories would not have been constructed, large department stores and office buildings would not be in existence, there would be no steamships in our ocean carrying trade, we would still be in the primitive condition which existed in the days of colonial settlement.

If the meat packers have accumulated profits by dishonest or unconscionable methods, that is a fit subject for criticism. There is much reason to doubt whether they have done so, however, for it is agreed that their methods are far more economical and have been of far greater benefit to the country than the wasteful and expensive methods previously pursued by the individual local slaughter houses that prepared meat for consumption. The methods of the Woolworth and similar concerns have demonstrated by their success that they are superior, in some respects, at least, to those which they succeeded.

The fact that these two large branches of industry have been financially successful is not in itself an evidence of wrongful methods. The criticism of the Federal Trade Commission seems, therefore, to be a criticism of the practice of saving, and re-investing the savings in the business from which they were secured.

In other words to be more successful than your competitor and retain and re-invest the rewards of success is reprehensible. This is a doctrine to which the American people will never subscribe.

CALIFORNIA LEGION ASKED TO AID IN HOSPITAL CASE

The enlistment of support of every post of the American Legion in California in the movement to have the Government Hospital north of Palo Alto retained in that locality, notwithstanding the opposition of the Menlo Park Improvement Association which objects to the presence of the institution, charging it to be "a menace to public health," is sought by Fremont Post, No. 52, in a circular letter sent out today to other posts of the state.

This atcion by Fremont Post follows its endorsement of the protest made by the six hundred patients of the hospital, who adopted strong resolutions of denunciation of the Menlo Park organization at a mass meeting Friday night.

The circular letter from Fremont Post to the other posts of the Legion states:

"Comrades:

"An effort is being made by property owners in Menlo Park to oust the United States Public Health Service Hospital located here.

"Many remarkable cures of soldiers —wounded, gassed, and otherwise disabled during the war—have been effected at this institution. Local climatic conditions are particularly good for cases of gas poisoning, and men unable to gain in other localities have recovered completely here.

"As you probably know, all United States Public Health Service Hospitals on this coast are now crowded to the limit, and disabled service men from every section of the United States are turning toward California as the olcality best suited for their recovery.

"If this hospital is discontinued it means that these six hundred men, now in that institution, must be turned out completely. In any event it will mean that they will be transferred to other localities where their opoprtunities for recovery will be much less than here."

Appended to the foregoing statement, the letter from Fremont Post calls attention to telegrams sent to California's Senators and Congressmen in Washington urging their activity in behalf of the war veterans, and adds:

"Any help that you can give will be thoroughly appreciated by the men at the hospital and by this post."

WHAT INCREASED FREIGHT RATES AMOUNTS TO

As part of an educational campaign to acquaint the public with the relations between freight rates and commodity prices, Agent L. R. Dains, of the Southern Pacific Company received today a copy of an orange and black poster which is being effectively displayed at the local passenger station.

The poster sets forth the actual cost of transportation by freight of a commodity used considerably in this community, and shows that a 25 per cent increase in freight rates would have little if any significance to the consumer,

For example: It costs 13 cents to ship a pair of shoes, size 7 from Boston to Redwood City. An increase of 25 per cent in freight rates will add only four cents on each pair.

Californians will not object to paying a freight rate needed for a fair return on the money invested that good railway service may be assured.

Similar posters are appearing on railroad stations from Portland to El Paso and from San Francisco to Ogden.

Agent L. R. Dains said in an interview yesterday:

"A freight rate that is too low for the railroad is too low for the shipper.

"In the economic readjustments that are inevitable, commodity prices and freight rates will seek approximately a common level. A decrease of commodity prices can follow an increase of freight rates just as an increase of commodity prices followed a decrease of freight rates. While freight rates are a factor in prices, they are so small a factor that as such they count for nothing as against the major factors of currency inflation, under-supply, extravagant demand and waste due to the war. The main thing about freight rates is to have them high enough to insure facilities for moving commodities and not so high as to retard commodity freight. Freight rates either too high or too low are a detriment to commerce and prosperity. Adjusted where they should be and the products of industry move to the most attractive markets."

WOODSIDE NEWS NOTES

Work has begun by Stanford University raising the Searsville dam so that more water may be accumulated in the lakes during the rainy season. The dam will be raised three and a half feet. The old spillway was five and one-half feet deep.

The Searsville dam was built thirty years ago by Senator Stanford and the Spring Valley Water Company. The original capacity was 337,000,000 gallons. The silting of the lake bottom had reduced this capacity in 1914 to 173,000,000 gallons, and in 1918 the measurements showed a further reduction to 148,000,000 gallons.

The rasling of the dam will bring the capacity to 327,000,000 gallons.

The Searsville water is used for irrigating lawns on the campus, for the fire department and for the Palo Alto Stock Farm.

The university some time ago bought from the Spring Valley Water Company the land adjoining the lakes

The Woodside Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. N. A. Anderson last week and had a delightful time. Mrs. Andreen demontsrated her cleverness as a hostess.

WILLYS OVERLAND WIN IN L. A.-YOSEMITE ECONOMY RUN

The Los Angeles Yosemite Economy run developed into a Willys-Overland landslide, the three Overlands and Willys-Knight cars entered, winning four out of six cups efferod.

In Class One for cars with afactory list price og $1200 or under, an Overland car, Henry Amon driving, finished first with a ton mileage record of 60.74 and actual gas mileage of 35.4 miles per gallon on the entire 355 mile journey, more than a hundred miles of which was mountain driving.

In Class Two, an Overland Sedan, driven by Fred Costa, finished first with a ton mileage of 51.8 and the astonishing actual gas mileage of 27.2 miles per gallon for the closed vehicle.

A Willys-Knight touring, driven by Tim Stevens, won second place in Class Two with a record of 50.57 ton miles per gallon and an actual gas mileage of 21.7 miles per gallon.

In the Grand Sweepstakes combining ton miles and actual gas mileage the three Overland entries carried everything before them, finishing one, two, three, leading all other entries.

This whirlwind process was repeated in hte winning of the Baker Economy Cup awarded for the best record for oil, gas and water combnied. Here the three Overland entries again lead the field and finished one, two, three in usual Overland form, smashing all previous records.

This performance in a field of 17 entrants, including cars listed up to the $5000 class rolls up a record that is without precedent and backs up every claim for the economy and stability besides giving this signal honor to the lowest priced car in the entire list of entries.

SAN CARLOS ITEMS

JOHN E. COWGILL, CORRESPONDENT

In the enlargement of the office in the San Carlos railroad station to more than double the former size in order to provide room for the installation of a large number of lock boxes and for other facilities in the proper handling of a post office in the building in order to accommodate the great influx of new residents and home builders the Southern Pacific Company have shown their usual liberal dispostion to do all possible to accommodate their patrons to the full extent of their ability, and it is very pleasing to note that the residents of the town are giving their patronage to the railroad company as against the busses and jitney service in appreciation of the railroad company's consideration for them. The enlarged quarters not only furnish facilities for the postmaster and station agent, but give ample room for the city manager to transact his business with the public and saves the town the expense of building a city hall and jail for the present; the baggage room answering the purpose of calaboose or jail.

The following persons were guests of Captain and Mrs. Geo. H. Zeh at the Legion dance and for a midnight turkey dinner: Messrs. John and Ernest Haquette and their mother, Mrs. Sophie Haquette; Mrs. Otto and daughter, Miss Lucile of Belmont; the Misses Adele and Adaline Ryer, Edna Roll and Dorothy James and Mr. Frank Lamb of San Francisco; Mr. Scheck of San Mateo; and Mrs. W. H. Foote of San Carlos and her niece, Miss Anita Serf of San Francisco.

Miss Mabel Graham has taken a vacation from her position i nthe city and with a number of girl chums has gone to Vacaville to work in the firuit during the season. Miss Graham was forced to seek out door employment upon the advice of her physician, owning to the confinement of her position as bookkeeper proving injurious to her health.

Mrs. A. E. Botterell who has been here for the past several weeks at the home of Mrs. Andrew J. Johnson while settling up the estate of her husband who recently died at Yuma, Arizona where he had gone for his health, left last Saturday on the shore line limited for a visit with her daughter at Santa Ana in the southern part of the state.

Miss Charlotte Knuck who has just completed a ten day visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Chas. H. Stark, returned to her home in San Francisco last Tuesday.

Willie McDonald left last Wednesday on the Pacific Limited for New York City where he will visit with his brother, John McDonald. It is rather suspicioned that Willie left something behind in France, and that he will probably cross the pond in search of the precious package unless mayhap it is forwarded to him at New York soon after his arrival at the metropolis.

Mr. W. H. Martin is the carpenter in charge of the improvements and alterations in the enlargement of the Southern Pacific office here. And Mr. T. Bertrand has charge of the work in changing the plumbing made necessary by the alterations.

Through the thoughtful courtesy of Miss Georgie Zeh a number of folks from San Carlos, Redwood City and Belmont were privileged to enjoy the delights of an excellent vocal program followed by a dance in the grand ball room at the Hotel Fairmont at the guests of Madame Christine La Barraque, Miss Zeh's vocal, Italian, Spanish and French teacher. The purpose of the recital or concert was to give the friends of Madame La Barraque and those of her students an opportunity to hear her scholars and note the progress made in voice culture within a few weeks or months under her splendid system and direction.

The following peninsula people were the fortunate recipients of invitations to this delightful affair through the kindness of Miss Zeh: Mr. and Mrs. Dranzy A. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Foote, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mahany, Miss Beatrice Juneau and Mr. and Mrs. Jno. E. Gowgill of San Carlos; Mrs. Otto and daughter, Miss Lucille; Messrs. John and Ernest Haquette and mother, Mrs. Sophie Haquette; Mrs. Jane O'Neil and son, Ray, and Mrs. Ivan Belu of Belmont; Mr. Dan Davidson, the flyer and his mother of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cunningham of Palo Alto; Mr. Ernest Werder of Redwood City, and Messrs. Augustus Paul Bellisle, Harry Pollock and Jimmie Lee of San Mateo.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Smith have returned to their home at Alhambra, a suburb of Los Angeles, after a ten day visit at the home of Mrs. N. T. Smith.

Capt. W. A. Robison, A. Bellue and Al. Pope in charge launched "Three Brothers" sailed down the bay from San Francisco last Sunday with a crowd of happy picnickers who lunched and danced at the Ohio building until late in the evening when they started on their pourney homeward. The following persons were guests of the Captain for the day: The Misses Myrile Butler, Gladys Fielder, Belle Pullman, Irene Norton, Nellie Shaw, Alma Chaetham, Anna Anderson and Mrs. Kate Stuart; Messrs. Raymond Eckhart, Louis Speer, Billie Moshier, Chas. Wersting Bennet Broderick, Alfred Bellue, Vernon Bemple and Theo. Stenile. Other visitors to the Ohio building last Sunday were: D. A. Jones, E. F. Lockie, Hollister and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Mitchell of Las Animas, Colorado.

HAVE TEACHERS' SALARIES BEEN RAISED?

Did anyone hear someone say that teachers' salaries have been raised?

Money is only a medium of exchange and is valuable only for what it will buy of the necessities or luxuries of life. No sober thinking man would make the claim that teachers as a class were ever overpaid.

In 1914 the value of the dollar began to shrink very rapidly and has continued to do so ever since until at the present time it buys less than 40 cent would buy in 1914, and has depreciated therefore 60 per cent of its value.

Since 1914 the average salary of the teachers in San Mateo county has increased but 36 per cent. In other words the teacher who was able only to live decently in 1914, can buy with her present salary only a little more than half as much as she could buy with her salary in 1914.

Have teachers' salaries been increased?

Let us be honest. Let us be wise. Let us not try to compel the teachers to educate our children at their own expense and sacrifice. Let's make the sacrifice ourselves if need be, because the obligation is ours and not the teachers. Let's pay the teacher a salary equal at least in purchasing power to that her 1914 salary. As self respecting, sincere citizens seeking the welfare and safety of our country we can do nothing less.

CITY DIRECTORY CANVASS HAS BEEN COMPLETED

A complete canvass of Redwood City for the new directory has been completed. Work of compiling the names is now under way and the book will be issued in a few weeks. In a number of cases the canvassers did not find people at home and information could not be obtained from any source. In other instances people have moved in or out, so that some changes have taken place since the names were secured. It is requested that any who feel that they have been missed or who have changed address in the last few weeks send in corrected particulars to the assistant secretary of the Merchants' Association at the Chamber of Commerce office. This must be done by Wednesday of next week in order to insure the correction being made.

A feature of the book this year will be the street directory. A list of all the streets in Redwood City has been arranged in alphabetical order and with each street is given the houses in numerical order on each side of the street. This was compiled from the water book at the city hall and corrected from the census taken by the directory canvassers. It is ready to be put in type now.

Canvassers in Redwood City were Lester Schottler and Rev. C. A. Parker. In San Carlos Miss May Quinn did the work, and in Atherton, Menlo Park and Woodside Miss Bernadette Clark is just completing that work. The SPENDER The SAVER

There's the man who spends $10 carelessly and says, "Why that's only ten dollars. I earned it in just a few hours." That fellow is the type that stands in the bread line when hard times strike the country.

The other type of American is the man who holds on to his ten spot and says: "Ten dollars is the interest at 5% on a capital of $200.

One man merely considers how much $10 will buy. The other stops and thinks how much it would cost him to borrow ten dollars.
